Sylvana Stormshot

CHARACTER NAME

54	5'8"	120 lbs
AGE	HEIGHT	WEIGHT
Gray	Beig-Feathered	Owlin
EYES	SKIN	HAIR

Sylvana Stormshot is a graceful Owlin with beige feathers that provide excellent forest camouflage. Her forest-green eyes reflect keen perception, and she's often seen in a flowing blue kimono adorned with nature-inspired patterns. She carries an air of quiet confidence, embodying the harmony of natural beauty and arcane power.

CHARACTER APPEARANCE

Sylvana's presence seems to harmonize with the natural world around her. When she walks through the forest, the birds sing more melodiously, and the leaves rustle in harmony. Her affinity with nature often leaves those she encounters with a sense of tranquility and wonder.

Sylvana's feathers are imbued with a natural resilience. They shimmer with an iridescent sheen, and they help protect her from harsh weather conditions, keeping her warm in the cold and cool in the heat. Her feathers also shed water effortlessly, allowing her to stay dry even in heavy rain.

Sylvana's deep connection to the forest grants her unique insights into its secrets. She can discern the age of trees, identify rare herbs, and navigate through the thickest undergrowth with ease. Her understanding of the forest's history and the creatures that dwell within it is unparalleled.

Sylvana's eyes have a keen and piercing quality. They can spot the subtlest movements in the foliage and discern even the faintest sounds. Her gaze is intense yet captivating, revealing her thoughtful and observant nature.

ADDITIONAL FEATURES & TRAITS

The Sylvan Wardens are a secretive and ancient order of guardians sworn to protect the sanctity of the natural world. Nestled deep within the heart of the ancient forest that Sylvana calls home, this organization has existed for generations. Its members, drawn from various woodland races including Owlin, Elves, and Fey creatures, share a deep bond with nature and are entrusted with the sacred task of safeguarding the forest and its inhabitants.

Alliances and Diplomacy:
The Sylvan Wardens maintain peaceful relationships with the fey creatures of the forest, local elven communities, and druidic circles. They occasionally form alliances with neighboring human settlements that respect nature's balance.

Sylvan Warden

SYMBOL

ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

Sylvana Stormshot was born into a peaceful Owlin community nestled deep within an ancient forest. From a young age, her affinity for archery was evident, and she honed her skills as a hunter and protector of her woodland home.

Traumatic Event. Sylvana's life took a dark turn when a malevolent Beholder, known as Xerathax the Eye Tyrant, descended upon the forest. Xerathax's presence corrupted the once-vibrant flora and fauna, transforming them into grotesque aberrations. The Beholder's relentless pursuit of magical knowledge and power threatened not only Sylvana's home but the entire region.

During a harrowing confrontation with Xerathax, Sylvana's village came under attack. The Beholder's anti-magic eye nullified the abilities of the Owlin's fellow warriors, leaving them defenseless. Sylvana's beloved mentor, an elder Owlin archer named Thalindra, sacrificed herself to protect her from Xerathax's devastating eye rays. Her sacrifice allowed Sylvana to escape the encounter, but she was left traumatized by the loss of her mentor and the devastation of her home.

CHARACTER BACKGROUND

1. Thalindra's Feathered Quill: This delicate quill, crafted from one of Thalindra's own feathers, serves as both a symbol of Sylvana's mentor and a tool for writing and sketching in her journal. It holds sentimental value, carrying memories of their time together and the knowledge Thalindra imparted.

2. Handwoven Dreamcatcher: A meticulously handwoven dreamcatcher made from natural materials found in her forest. Sylvana believes that it helps protect her dreams from dark influences and connects her with the dream realm, where she often gains insights and guidance from the spirits of the forest.

3. Bound Herbal Grimoire: A meticulously hand-bound grimoire containing a wealth of knowledge about rare herbs, magical plants, and their properties. It serves as both a guide to her herbalism and a repository of the forest's secrets.

Features, Magic Items and Spells

Owlin Traits

Distant kin of giant owls from the Feywild, owlin come in many shapes and sizes, from petite and fluffy to wide-winged and majestic. Owlin have arms and legs like other Humanoids, as well as wings that extend from their back and shoulders.

Like owls, owlin are graced with feathers that make no sound when they move or fly, making it easy for them to sneak up on you in the library.

Your owlin character might be nocturnal. Or perhaps your character is simply prone to rise later, embodying the common nickname of night owl.

Darkvision

You can see in dim light within 120 feet of yourself as if it were bright light and in darkness as if it were dim light. You discern colors in that darkness only as shades of gray.

Flight

Thanks to your wings, you have a flying speed equal to your walking speed. You can't use this flying speed if you're wearing medium or heavy armor.

Silent Feathers

You have proficiency in the Stealth skill.

Feats

Tough

Your Hit Point maximum increases by an amount equal to twice your character level when you gain this feat. Whenever you gain a character level thereafter, your Hit Point maximum increases by an additional 2 Hit Points.

Archery (Fighting Style)

You gain a +2 bonus to attack rolls you make with Ranged weapons.

Wildspacer

You were raised in the void of Wildspace - home to asteroid miners, moon farmers, and other hardy folk. Perhaps you grew up in a far-flung settlement such as the Rock of Bral, or you spent your early years on the crew of a spelljamming ship, performing helpful chores such as swabbing the deck, loading and offloading cargo, and scraping barnacles off the hull.

Whatever your history, life in Wildspace has toughened you so well that you are as brave as a miniature giant space hamster when it comes to facing the terrors and other challenges of the airless night.

Close Encounter

You had a harrowing encounter with one of Wildspace's many terrors. You escaped with your life, but the encounter left you with a scar or two, or perhaps a recurring nightmare. Roll on the Close Encounter table to determine which creature nearly got the best of you.

Close Encounter

	d10	Creature
•	1	Beholder
	2	Cosmic Horror
	3	Feyr
	4	Lunar Dragon
	5	Mind Flayer
	6	Neh-thalggu
	7	Neogi
	8	Space Clown
	9	Vampirate
	10	Void Scavver

Wildspace Adaptation

You gain the Tough feat. In addition, you learned how to adapt to zero gravity. Being weightless doesn't give you Disadvantage on any of your melee attack rolls.

Fighter Traits

Fighting Style

Archery
You have honed your martial prowess and gain a Fighting Style feat of your choice.

Second Wind

Heal 1d10 + 3
You have a limited well of physical and mental stamina that you can draw on. As a Bonus Action, you can use it to regain Hit Points equal to 1d10 plus your Fighter level.

You can use this feature twice. You regain one expended use when you finish a Short Rest, and you regain all expended uses when you finish a Long Rest.

When you reach certain Fighter levels, you gain more uses of this feature, as shown in the Second Wind column of the Fighter Features table.

Weapon Mastery

Your training with weapons allows you to use the mastery properties of three kinds of Simple or Martial weapons of your choice. Whenever you finish a Long Rest, you can practice weapon drills and change one of those weapon choices.

When you reach certain Fighter levels, you gain the ability to use the mastery properties of more kinds of weapons, as shown in the Weapon Mastery column of the Fighter Features table.

Slow (Longbow)

If you hit a creature with this weapon and deal damage to it, you can reduce its Speed by 10 feet until the start of your next turn. If the creature is hit more than once by weapons that have this property, the Speed reduction doesn't exceed 10 feet.

Vex (Rapier / Handaxe)

If you hit a creature with this weapon and deal damage to the creature, you have Advantage on your next attack roll against that creature before the end of your next turn.

Action Surge

You can push yourself beyond your normal limits for a moment. On your turn, you can take one additional action, except the Magic action.

Once you use this feature, you can't do so again until you finish a Short or Long Rest. Starting at level 17, you can use it twice before a rest but only once on a turn.

Tactical Mind

You have a mind for tactics on and off the battlefield. When you fail an ability check, you can expend a use of your Second Wind to push yourself toward success. Rather than regaining Hit Points, you roll 1d10 and add the number rolled to the ability check, potentially turning it into a success. If the check still fails, this use of Second Wind isn't expended.

Arcane Archer Lore

At 3rd level, you learn magical theory or some of the secrets of nature typical for practitioners of of this elven martial tradition. You choose to gain proficiency in either the Arcana or the Nature skill, and you choose to learn either the Prestidigitation or Druidcraft cantrip.

Arcane Shot

At 3rd level, you learn to unleash special magical effects with some of your shots. When you gain this feature, you learn two Arcane Shot options of your choice (see "Arcane Shot Options" below).

Once per turn when you fire an arrow from a shortbow or longbow as part of the Attack action, you can apply one of your Arcane Shot options to that arrow. You decide to use the option when the arrow hits, unless the option doesnt involve an attack roll. You have two uses of this ability, and you regain all expended uses of it when you finish a short or long rest.

You gain an additional Arcane Shot option of your choice when you reach certain levels in this class: 7th, 10th, 15th, and 18th level. Each option also improves when you become an 18th-level fighter.

Arcane Shot Options

The Arcane Shot feature lets you choose options for it at certain levels. The options are presented here in alphabetical order. They are all magical effects, and each one is associated with one of the schools of magic.

If an option requires a saving throw, your Arcane Shot save DC equals 8 + your proficiency bonus + your Intelligence modifier.

Save DC: 12

Banishing Arrow. You use abjuration magic to try to temporarily banish your target to a harmless location in the Feywild. The creature hit by the arrow must also succeed on a Charisma saving throw or be banished. While banished in this way, its speed is 0, and it is incapacitated. At the end of its next turn, the target reappears in the space it vacated or in the nearest unoccupied space if that space is occupied.

After you reach 18th level in this class, a target also takes 2d6 force damage when the arrow hits it.

Beguiling Arrow. Your enchantment magic causes this arrow to temporarily beguile its target. The creature hit by the arrow takes an extra 2d6 psychic damage, and choose one of your allies within 30 feet of the target. The target must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw, or it is charmed by the chosen ally until the start of your next turn. This effect ends early if the chosen ally attacks the charmed target, deals damage to it, or forces it to make a saving throw.

The psychic damage increases to 4d6 when you reach 18th level in this class.

Bursting Arrow. You imbue your arrow with force energy drawn from the school of evocation. The arrow detonates after your attack. Immediately after the arrow hits the creature, the target and all other creatures within 10 feet of it take 2d6 force damage each.

The force damage increases to 4d6 when you reach 18th level in this class.

Enfeebling Arrow. You weave necromantic magic into your arrow. The creature hit by the arrow takes an extra 2d6 necrotic damage. The target must also succeed on a Constitution saving throw, or the damage dealt by its weapon attacks is halved until the start of your next turn.

The necrotic damage increases to 4d6 when you reach 18th level in this class.

Grasping Arrow. When this arrow strikes its target, conjuration magic creates grasping, poisonous brambles, which wrap around the target. The creature hit by the arrow takes an extra 2d6 poison damage, its speed is reduced by 10 feet, and it takes 2d6 slashing damage the first time on each turn it moves 1 foot or more without teleporting. The target or any creature that can reach it can use its action to remove the brambles with a successful Strength (Athletics) check against your Arcane Shot save DC. Otherwise, the brambles last for 1 minute or until you use this option again.

The poison damage and slashing damage both increase to 4d6 when you reach 18th level in this class.

Piercing Arrow. You use transmutation magic to give your arrow an ethereal quality. When you use this option, you don't make an attack roll for the attack. Instead, the arrow fires forward in a line, which is 1 foot wide and 30 feet long, before disappearing. The arrow passes harmlessly through objects, ignoring cover. Each creature in that line must make a Dexterity saving throw. On a failed save, a creature takes damage as if it were hit by the arrow, plus an extra 1d6 piercing damage. On a successful save, a target takes half as much damage.

The piercing damage increases to 2d6 when you reach 18th level in this class.

Seeking Arrow. Using divination magic, you grant your arrow the ability to seek out your target, allowing the arrow to curve and twist its path in search of its prey. When you use this option, you dont make an attack roll for the attack. Instead, choose one creature you have seen in the past minute. The arrow flies toward that creature, moving around corners if necessary and ignoring three-quarters cover and half cover. If the target is within the weapon's range and there is a path large enough for the arrow to travel to the target, the target must make a Dexterity saving throw. On a failed save, it takes damage as if it were hit by the arrow, plus an extra 1d6 force damage, and you learn the target's current location. On a successful save, the target takes half as much damage, and you don't learn its location.

The force damage increases to 2d6 when you reach 18th level in this class.

Shadow Arrow. You weave illusion magic into your arrow, causing it to occlude your foes vision with shadows. The creature hit by the arrow takes an extra 2d6 psychic damage, and it must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw or be unable to see anything farther than 5 feet away until the start of your next turn.

The psychic damage increases to 4d6 when you reach 18th level in this class.
